The two million subscription to the loan of the Illinois Central Railroad was completed in New York on Tuesday. The subscription price was 70c. Among the large takers was Messrs. Josephus Burtiss, Henry Chauncey, Gen. Gitteau, F. L. Chauncey, Jr., & Co., Jacob Little & Co., Bowen, Bros. & Co., Schuchardt & Gebhard, Ketchum, Roquet & Bunnel, J. N. A. Griswold, and two others for $100,000 each. The aggregate earnings of the Illinois Central Road in 1854, were $474,000. The road will be opened a length of 174 miles which, in view of the want of communications, is very favorable.

Shultz, Haddon & Lathrop, of New Orleans, whose failure was announced in last week, have resumed payment. Fellows & Co., of New Orleans are paying all the bills drawn against produce shipped, and they say, expect to resume in full shortly. So St. Louis the environment has resumed. Page & Bacon, Eaton, Sayles & Co., are the only heavy failures that failed. The other leading houses sustained the run made upon them during the excitement, and have resumed payment. Fellows & Co., of New Orleans are paying all the bills drawn against produce shipped, and they say, expect to resume in full,
